

What Does It Mean to Be an Episcopalian?

MOVEMENTS

*Go the shelves and pick up the object box.
Bring the box to the circle of children.*

Sit back and reflect for a moment about what might be inside.

*Take the “stool” legs from the box and roll
them out carefully, starting with the red one on your right. Roll each “leg” out backwards towards you, concealing the rolled up ribbon. Continue with the purple leg in the middle, and the green leg to your left. Finally, place the black oval over the top of the legs so that you can easily reach
under and pull the carefully hidden ribbons
out at the end. Smooth out the felt carefully, waiting for the story to begin.*

Take out the Good Shepherd and place it in the center of the felt.

Take out the small table and place it next to the small Good Shepherd.

Place the paten on the table.

Place the small chalice on the table.

WORDS

Watch where I go to get this story.

There was once someone who did such amazing things and said such wonderful things that people began to follow him. As they followed him, they heard him speaking about many things. So they had to ask him, “Who are you?”

He said, “I am the Good Shepherd.”

Later, when he was with the Twelve in the Upper Room, he took a piece of bread, gave thanks to God for it, broke it and shared it with them.

Then he said something like, “When you share
the bread like this, I will be there.”

But he was there!

Then he took a cup of wine, gave thanks to God
for it and shared it with them.

Then he said something like, “When you share
the wine like this, I will be there.”

But he was there!
